Celebrating her Story

Arizona's Children's Association (AZCA) is excited to announce the fourth annual "Celebrating Her Story" event, a luncheon for supporters, corporate and community partners, friends, and allies to gather and celebrate exemplary women who have demonstrated resiliency in times of adversity. The event will take place at the Arizona Biltmore Golf Course Ballroom (2400 Biltmore Estates Dr, Phoenix, AZ 85016) on Tuesday, April 8th, 2025 from 11 AM - 1 PM.

This year's event will recognize Mary Lou Hapner who, paying no attention to glass ceilings, became the first female stock broker in Arizona and only the second in the United States. In addition, she taught herself golf, rising to the level of the varsity golf team at ASU, was a founding member of the Arizona Biltmore Country Club, and wrote the Proclamation for Justice Sandra Day O'Connor, when she was appointed to the Supreme Court. After her illustrious career, Mary Lou has been a stalwart advocate for children, contributing in multiple ways to numerous Arizona organizations, including serving on AZCA's Emeritis Board. Noted artist Annette Smith says "Mary Lou is a tough, self-made woman with an indomitable spirit who broke through barriers for women in the business world. At the same time, she is generous and compassionate, especially to the kids in Arizona who need our help." It is our honor recognize her fortitude and outstanding contributions to our children.

All proceeds from this event benefit AZCA's programs and services.

With your help , we can continue to make a difference in the lives of our most vulnerable children.
